Wednesday 22th April 2009, Valencia Spain

Today we are glad to announce the addition of a new team to our organisation, Giants are now the home of a Call of Duty 4 team.

We are glad to welcome French team Love! to Giants, with the acquisition of the promising team. Combining some of the French's best talent, along with Swiss Raphael 'Raigeki' Nunes, the new Giants line-up has the potential to become the best team of 2009.

The team has made itself a name within the CoD4 Scene by placing 3rd at Gamers Assembly Lan last weekend and some good online performances in various leagues. The team will be wearing the Giants name whilst they aim to continue on their winning ways.

Team will also be attending LAN79 in Bressuire, France.

The Giants CoD4 team is:

-  Thomas "arEs" Dessaint (Manager)
-  Kévin "frenchy" Héraudet
-  Mathieu "niejdan" Lascombes
-  Raphael "Raigeki" Nunes
-  Léonard "rukkae" Alzeto
-  Romain "xandeR" Lopes

Statements from malGer, arEs and frenchy.

malGer, Team Director of Giants:

"I would like to welcome the french lovers to Giants. They are very professional guys and that has been a key factor that made us trust in them. We are confident that they will become one of the best european teams and will represent Giants in the best way possible. Good luck."

arEs, the team manager:

"My team and me are glad to join Giants, I hope it's going be a long and successful partnership. A few organisations contacted us but Giants was the only one that really seems interesting and professional."

Our recent Gamers Assembly 3rd place made us understand that we need to make some change, frenchy was the player who could give us a more aggressive style of play. We still need some practice of course but not having to find a new org is a first step in our comeback. I'd like to thanks Giants for the confidence they put into us."

frenchy, the newest addition to the team:

“Hi, my name is Kevin Héraudet, known as frenchy and I've just arrived in the Love! line-up. We're still practicing to get a good result at the lan79, a top5 would be a great performance as the best euro teams will attend.

I'm very glad to have the chance to be a part of the Giants organisation. Thanks to the sponsors and to the people that support us.”

Good luck to French lovers!
